The College Life Skills Program utilizes our individualized, proprietary, and evidence-based interventions that have been meticulously developed through the real-life experience of thousands of students over three decades.

The CollegeLSP will develop the:

emotional maturity,
executive functioning,
life skills and
social abilities

of college bound students, those in college and those transitioning out of college.

Strategically ensuring success through individualized coaching for student's who may have characteristics of ADHD, "Giftedness," "Asperger's," Autism, Learning Disabilities and other learning/life challenges.
